

New dealer in Estonia

After being in the Estonian market for some years, we have decided to find a new importer to caretake the market, we have found a very serious company in Agriland OÜ. They are among other products importer of Fendt. More information are to be found at their own webpage, which are to be found in the section of dealer network. We are looking forward to a hopefully long business relation.